

NE Caribbean Liveaboard

St. Maarten, Saba, Statia, St. Kitts

August 14-21, 2010

The Atlantic and Caribbean waters surrounding St. Kitts and Nevis offer the Caribbean scuba diver a wealth of experiences, from colorful reef formations to fascinating wrecks. Whether you like shallow reef tops, walls, wrecks, drift diving or just incredible diversity in fish and critters, for Caribbean SCUBA diving Saint Kitts and Nevis is a great choice.

The vessel departs Saturday from St. Maarten. Itineraries include 5 1/2 days of diving; 2 to 2 1/2 days within the Saba Marine Park, a day within the St. Eustatius Marine Park, and 2 to 2 1/2 days at St. Kitts. 5 dives daily are normally offered, including night dives. The schedule also provides for up to 3 island tours during the week, there is ample time for our guests to explore forts, rainforests, duty-free shops and museums. The Northeastern Caribbean itinerary, combining diving and optional island access, has always been unique within the live aboard diving industry. As a dedicated dive, live aboard, all diving is done directly off of the vessel, using the expansive dive deck covering the aft third of the main deck. Each diver has his or her own dive gear bin; a large camera table, as well as rinse tanks, wetsuit drying racks, camera battery charging stations are available for all to use.
